BABY MEMBERS IN CONGRESS GIVE THEIR IMPRESSIONS OF THEIR NEW SITUATIONS

They Are All Happy to Be in the House, and Sing Praises of Their Colleagues.

ings which will enable a new member

HORACE MANN TOWNER, of Iowa

"I have been deeply impressed with the diversity of subjects the House must take in hand, and I am fasci-nated with the prompt and effec-

With the opening of every new Congress a number of bright individuals, whose wits have been sharpened by contact with the world and whose powers have undergone the fierce test of civic battle, quietly but, after all, I suppose it is for the best. I have met a lot of mighty good fellows, and that helps some. enter Washington and unostentatiously take their seats for the first time as legislators. They are Americans of red blood and of sinew which CAME TO CAPITAL TO typefies the nation. Landed suddenly in the midst of a great body, which they have theretofore viewed only from afar, it is interesting to learn their comment and to know their feelings.

In this, the beginning of what promises to be the greatest Congress In this, the beginning of what promises to be the greatest congress

I packed my grip and dropped quietly of a generation. The Washington Herald has undertaken to catch at down to Washington for the purpose of flood tide the new impressions of a number of these beginners in the great legislative field. The results of random queries directed here and what constitutes there among the neophytes disclose graphic colors in the great picture, tones which ordinarily escape the eye of the person who makes it a business to inspect and describe.

With startling distinctness, through these carefully gathered compared by the startling distinctness, through these carefully gathered compared by the startling distinctness, through these carefully gathered compared by the startling distinctness and shot of a legislative gatherthere among the neophytes disclose graphic colors in the great picture, ing that for man-to-man fairness and endowments which follow a gospel of brotherly love has not been excelled in years. Regardless of politics, me the Sixty-second Congress have had their pathways smoothed and pressions of the House. In response to a few simple questions, such as "How do you like it job?" and "What circumstance has impressed you most?" The ashington Herald is able to present a series of most interesting seasoned as a member of long service. age, affiliation, or section, the new members who have arrived to serve in the Sixty-second Congress have had their pathways smoothed and their lives gladdened by the older members who have welcomed them. Not in years has there been so much sunshine and human contentment about the House of Representatives, despite the fact that another party has taken up the reins of power.

your job?" and "What circumstance has impressed you most?" The Washington Herald is able to present a series of most interesting

WAS DISAPPOINTED IN WASHINGTON AT FIRST

S.F. KONOP, of Wisconsin.

ever in Washington before, and ealize that I was actually comougress until a short time bethere. I will confess I was disappointed with appointed with appointed with THOMAS F. KONOP, of Wisconsin was never in Washington before, and did not realize that I was actually comong to Congress until a short time be-lare I got here. I will confess I was dis-a p p of n ted with Washington at the ingly tame. How-ever, in the short time I have been ingly tame. However, in the short time I have been here I have been to realize that the city has a beauty of its own and that the town all have their historical interest and fascination of age.

In the House I have been impressed with the "all-sroundness" of the big men I had read about but had never seen. I had pletured many of them as plain wire-pullers, with little else to command them. To find "Uncle Joe" Cannon on the floor, speaking and denting with the rest, has been a revelation. Representative, Underwood, the minority leader, also has demonstrated to me what a broadgauge persen a Congressman can become and yet command his forces.

SURPRISED TO FIND

INSURGENTS WELCOMED

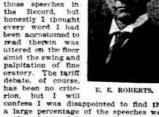

F. SCHUYLER JACKSON, of Kansas. which travels under the brand "Insurgent Republican." I came to Washing-ton naturally with some little misgiving as to the way I was to be treated by the standpatters of the House, and the success I was to have as a legislator. Ee it to the credit of great American nanhood that one individual, striving honestly to follow his conscience, is as good as another in the House of Representatives. I can say that it has been a case of "square deal" from the start. The bitter feelings and slighting treatment I had heard of as being in store for insurgents are not here, and I can FIND MEMBERS MOST fearbly express my surprise and grait. frankly express my surprise and grati-fication. It is a big privilege to serve in such a body, and I am glad I am

NEVER SAW WASHINGTON UNTIL HE BECAME MEMBER

EDWIN EWING ROBERTS, of Nevada. I was born in the far West. I never saw the East until I came to Washington the other day as a member of Congress. I am going to stay here just as ents that such an ardent desire should be gratified. Perhaps I was a rernans I was a little "green" about those speeches in the Record, but honestly I thought every word I had been accustomed to read therein was uttered on the floor and the swing and rion, but I will confess I was disappointed to find that a large percentage of the speeches were read and not delivered offnand, and a great number of them were simply "extended" into the Record. My dream of a body of ready orators has therefore been jarred somewhat, but perhaps future debate will develop more of that talent than I have seen as yet.

talent than I have seen as yet.

I have spent my time mainly since coming here in finding my way in and out of the big buildings. I am just learning to readily find my office in the wast structure where it is located.

OBJECTS TO PUBLIC BUILDINGS SCATTERED HAS MET A LOT OF

JOHN M. C. SMITH, of Michigan. legislative fathers who guided ding of Washington had only the executive departments around the Capitol square, or had the strung them all along one thoroughare they would nowadays be receiving the blessing of the new member of Congress

YOUNG MAN LEARNS YOUTH IS NO HANDICAP

B. P. HARRISON, of Mississippi. The Democrats had been out of power for so long in national government affairs that naturally I came to Washington with some misgivings as to the cordiality as to the cordinity that might be accorded us by the minority of the House, now that we had become the majority.
I was here but a few days when I

having served in the legislature of m

HENRY GEORGE, JR., of New York

HENRY GEORGE IS BUSY

INSURULALATE INSURABLE IN THE POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT OF AS LARGE

INSURULATA INSURABLE INSURABLE

CONCERNED IN RE-ELECTION HOUSE NOT AS LARGE AS HE EXPECTED CHARLES H. SLOAN, of Nebraska. OSCAR CALLAWAY, of Texas,

THOMAS L. RUBEY, of Missouri, entatives through the small end olleague "Jim" Young, who anno to me the other day that he had not yet obtained a "hand holt." I don't bolleve I have either a "hand holt" or a "foot holt" as yet, but I am sure that I have an impression have an impression that somewhere about the picture that I pictured the Speaker as sitting afar off and the ef-forts of a member to make his voice reach the presid-ing officer's ears as b o th stupendous and discouraging. It was something of a surprise to me, therefore, to dis-24 about the picture there is missing a halo.

I find that there are other things to do in Congress besides make laws for the people, and these consist mainly in keeping yourself elected. Strangely enough, I did not realize that fact when I started for fact when I started for and therein I may have Washington and therein I may have maintained concerning the House a sanctified notion which I find is vanishing into thin mist as my service lengthens. Under the system which prevails, the selfish interests of men, I suppose, cannot help but figure in the equation.

I find, upon looking over my fellow-members, that their worries do not all relate to the business of the people, but that a great many of them are hung on the fact that politics must be played and that the constituents at home must be kept placated and in good humor. It is a strong tide, and nearly every one gets a strong tide, and nearly every one gets swept into it. Maybe I shall succumb myself. I don't know. However, Texas is a big, free State, and the man who has the ability to win a sent in Congress need not feer of loaing out on any sort of a livithood at home.

ability to win a sent in Congress of fear of losing out on any sort thood at home.

MET A LOT OF

MIGHTY GOOD FELLOWS

VIN S. PEPPER, of lown.

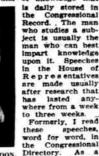

Ou ever experiment with a camera tempt to take pictures and forget to the silde, leaving the plate exites the silde, leaving the plate exites of the congress on a new member during the first with the first the silde, leaving the plate exites on longer a matter of levity or joyous comment with me, for I am In the midst of distributing a consignment of under or seed I have been able to obtain, and it is serious business. Although I required the impression that Congress on a new member during the first walk crack, I am beseched to send three weeks. I confess that oclly I get restless and wish that we be such a demand for it, and I do not The midstant and the send in the send in least there would be such a demand for it, and I do not The midstant and the send in the s IRVIN S. PEPPER, of lows. IRVIN S. PEPPER, of lows.

Did you ever experiment with a camera and attempt to take pictures and forget to close the slide, leaving the plate exposed? If so, you will have a pretty good idea of the impression that Congress makes on a new member during the first two or three weeks. I confess that occasionally I get restless and wish that we believe any of my constituents are mak-ing soup out of the pea seed, either. Most of the demands, I find, come from children who are studying botany, and from citizens who are acquiring small plots in the country. Yes, indeed, seed-sending, after all, is an important part of a Congressman's life.

FINDS DELIGHT IN LISTENING TO SPEECHES

WITHERSPOON, of Mississippi. I am greatly impressed with the won-derful privilege accorded a member of Congress in getting first hand, as it were, the marvelous fund of knowledge that

CORDIAL GREETINGS

SAMUEL J. TRIBBLE, of Georgia. Service in Congress is very pleasant, in fact it is far pleasanter than I had plea-tured it to myself before coming. The experiences of a beginner are embarofficers and committee chairmen were much pleasure that much pleasure that the House of Rep.

HON. S. J. TRIBBLE. the House of Rep.

the Helius Smith, who has been spending the winder spending the winder spending the winder spending the winder of thanks was given the president. Miss Grace Ross.

The society will hold its annual banguet on May 20. The following were chosen as officers for the ensuing year:

the House of Rep.

A rising vote of thanks was given the president. Miss Grace Ross.

The society will hold its annual banguet on May 20. The following were chosen as officers for the ensuing year:

the House of Rep.

Mrs. Heslus Smith, who has been spending the winder with Mrs. Gwilliam Grace Now Olive Lyons is spending the weekend with her acunt to her home.

Mrs. Heslus Smith, who has been spending the winder spending the winds president in Sum of Wiss Olive Lyons is spending the winder of with her acunt to her home.

Mrs. Heslus Smith, who has been spending the winds president in Sum of Wiss Olive Lyons is spending the winder of the Wirginia Superior. Wiss Olive Lyons is spending the weekend with her acunt to her home.

Mrs. Heslus Smith, who has turned with Mrs. Heslus Smith, who has turned with Mrs. Heslus Smith, who has turned complete the complete spending the winds of the spending the winds.

Mrs. Heslus Smith, who has turned complete spending the winds.

Mrs. Heslus Smith, who has turned complete spending the winds.

Mrs. Heslus Smith, who has turned complete spending the winds.

Mrs. Heslus Smit

EACH FACE AND NAME

The fact that I have no intention of resigning from the House should be as complete an answer as I can make to your question: "How It is pleasant to be "How do I like my job!

of a telescope and you will have the impression I had formed of a view of that to place before I came to Washington. I had heard so much about the House being large, both physically and in regard to numbers, that I pictured the Search at th worth remembering my notice thus far.

GREATNESS OF GOVERNMENT IMPRESSES NEW MEMBER H. M. JACOWAY, of Arkaness.

therefore, to discover that, unless the tumult in the House is too great, a member can address the chair in a conversational tone and be heard. The Speaker sits astonishingly close in, and the effort of addressing the House is not half the undertaking I supposed it would be. Outside of that, my impressions of the House as a legislative body have not materially changed from what they were before I came. I gained a fairly correct idea of the deliberations of such a body through having served in the legislature of my incidental to the duties devolving upon a Congressman. I do not think a Representative, or, for that matter, any one who comes here, can fail to be preminently impressed with at least one libuting, and that is the bigness of the government in which he lives. Since assuming my duties as Congressman I have attempted to listen to the debates in the House, and in that manner acquaint myber of the merits of those matters under consideration. In trying to keep du with the entire business of the machiness of delity, a new member of the machiness of the total try.

Wallis Schutts has the contract to the machiness of the louse, and in that manner acquaint myber the House.

The matters I am most interested in the machiness of the House.

The matters I am most interested in the matter in the departments as everal reality deals last week.

Hendrick's Company closed disponential as bungalow on parker avenue last week. There is a great demand for this style of houses.

Asa Domaidson sold a bungalow on parker avenue last week. There is a great demand for this style of houses and the manner are admitted as a contineous building boon all light on the Market. There is a contineous building boon all light on the first warm payre, of Lynchburg.

Mrs. B. F. Shriver, who has been visiting of her son-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall Jones, in Capt. Miss Elicanor Douthet, of Danville, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Cochronic in the manner and matters and light on the manner and matters are in demand.

Mrs. Bohy Marshall warm Payre, of Lynchburg.

Mrs. B. Shriver, who has the set of houses.

Mrs. B. Shriver, who has theme on Saturday afternoon it warm log the form of house and duranter in the wa H. M. JACOWAY, of Arkansas.
Washington is not entirely new to me.
Some ten years ago I spent two winters here doing newspaper and other work, and was somewhat acquainted with at least the detail labor in the departments incidental to the duties devolving upon a Congressman. I do not think a Repre-SENDING OUT GARDEN SEED

ing enlarged Commerce Co

Commerce Crimmission.

One cannot help wishing, however, that there might be more time for the consideration of matters here. It is a great experience to be a cog in the machine, and I feel that lasting beneficent results will flow from laws enacted by this Con-

PLENTY OF PATRIOTISM

IN THE PRESENT HOUSE

W. S. HOWARD, of Georgia It has been just about one month since entered upon the Congressional "Milk Diet." How long the "physicians" of the House will keep me upon this diet, I do not even attempt a guess. As I under-stand it, much depends upon the digestive condition of the patient.

There is certainly no lack of patriolsm in the present House. Especially is this true if the proposed legislation happens condition of the potential property of the control of the potential property of these departments have been almost democralized; the cause of the democrization is a matter of conjecture.

Yes, Congress is a great field for accomplishment. I like the work; it is consenial. While here my whole heart, mind, and energy will be directed in doing in my humble way all possible for that American citizen who is in need of real wholesome legislation for the common good of the whole country especially and I interested in the establishment of a parcels post, and I propose to do all I can to get it.

Miss Mary Henry Daingerfield has returned to her home on Seminary Hill after visiting her sister. Mrs. Charles Sterling, in New York City.

Mrs. Albert Doyle Brockett have returned from a visit to Danville.

Mrs. Hunter Johnson, who has been visiting her sister-in-law. Miss Mary Henry Daingerfield has returned to her home on Seminary Hill after visiting her sister. Mrs. Charles Sterling, in New York City.

Mrs. Albert Doyle Brockett have returned from a visit to Danville.

Mrs. Hunter Johnson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Sterling, in New York City.

Mrs. Albert Doyle Brockett have returned from a visit to Danville.

Mrs. Hunter Johnson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Sterling, in New York City.

Mrs. Hunter Johnson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Sterling, in New York City.

Mrs. Hunter Johnson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Sterling, in New York City.

Mrs. Albert Doyle Brockett have returned from a visit to Danville.

Mrs. Hunter Johnson, who has been visiting her sister. Mrs. Charles Sterling, in New York City.

Mrs. Albert Doyle Brockett have returned from a visit to Danville.

Mrs. Hunter Johnson, who has been visiting her sister. Mrs. Charles Sterling, in New York City.

rassing almost anywhere. Like a boy putting in his first year at college. Like a boy
putting in his first year at college. Like a boy
putting in his first year at college. Li could see myself brushed ruthlessly aside by the older members until I had served my novitlate. I felt that I I would be lucky if I were even spoken to by such men as Clark, Underwood,
Mann, and Fitzserald any time inside of a year. I can state with much pleasure that the House of Repmuch pleasure that that American citizen who is in need of the embors in need country explaints in the stablishing for the country country explaints in the destablishing for her home in Harrisonburg.

Miss Nellie Seldon Uhler has returned from a beld to Washington, is visiting her sister-in-law. Miss May dishing her sister-in-law. Miss May lothison, in rince street, left on Tuesday for her home in Harrisonburg.

Miss Nellie Seldon Uhler has returned from a blaviate Hopkins, near Highlands, Md.
Miss Alive Roberts, of Washington, is visiting her sister-in-law. Johnson, in rince street, left on Tuesday for her home in Harrisonburg.

Miss Nellie Seldon Uhler has returned from a blaviate to Miss Alvale Hopkins, near Highlands, Md.
Miss Alive Roberts, of Washington Univisiting her sister-in-law. Johnson, in rince street, left on Tuesday for her home in Harrisonburg.

Miss Nellie Seldon Uhler shat play state to Miss Alvale Hopkins, near Highlands, Md.
Mis

CHERRYDALE.

The Vacation Lodge was opened on Friday last. A number of young ladies will remain until next Tuesday, when another delegation will arrive.

another delegation will arrive.

Leigh Brothers have the largest contract for cement work that has been the given out in this county for some time. They are now putting cement sidewalks in Dickenson's Addition to Ciarendon. In this subdivision several houses are about completed, others are under way, and quite a number of purchasers of lots are having plans drawn or are getting estimates for houses. John G. Harris a well.

Miss Eugenia Elilott, in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks-turns, and Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericks dute a number of purchasers of loss are having plans drawn or are getting esti-mates for houses. John G. Harris, a well-known builder, is finishing a very fine light brick bungalow in this subdivision, is visiting Miss Susie Fawcett in Prince is treet. vill start the excavation for two

Howard W. Dickson, of the Weather Bureau, has purchased, and moved into the Smithdeal bungalow in Oak Grove

Thomas McCabe and family have returned to their home in Harrison street,

A. H. Orndroff has started a bungalow for Mr. Dodge, of the District health department in Maywood. for Mr. Dodge, of the District health department in Maywood.

Joseph Cozzens has taken possession of his new house at West Cherrydale.

Joseph Cozzens has taken possession of his new house at West Cherrydale.

of his new house at west Cherrydale.

The county supervisors have let the contract for grading Preston avenue to Jacob Birch.

Thomas C. Hendrick's Company closed the Hendrick's Company closed

ocicty

were soloists at a tea the past week at the home of Mr. Job Barnard. Miss Mc-Gill gave a song recital at the Coloinal School for Girls before singing at Mrs.

Mrs. George Chandice, of East Lenox street, who has been in New York City with her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Chandice, has returned to her home.

Mr. Kenneth Cugle, of Magnolia park-way, will leave shortly for British Colom-bia, where he expects to spend the sum-

Mr. and Mrs. William Hitz, of East Lenox street, have leased their house for

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Brown, Lenox street, will spend the su the North. Gen. and Joseph C. Breckenridge, who leased the Dessez house, in East Irvins street some time ago, will spend the summer in Montreal, Canada.

Miss Susan Sipe, of West Irving strenas leased her house for the summer. Mr. M. J. Hooff, of Richmond, Va., is expected in Chevy Chase next week as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cleveland Chandlee, of Oliver street, The Misses Vier, of Chicago, Ill., who have been visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Spier, of East Meirosa street, have returned to their home after a very pleasant trip.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Prior, of West Kirke street, have as their house guest the lat-ter's sister, Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Ormsby McCammon, of East Len-ox street, has gone to Philadelphia, Pa., to visit her mother.

ALEXANDRIA.

Miss Fannie Harmon, of Charlotter ille, is visiting Miss Alice Anderton i ville, is visiting M Braddock Heights.

Johnson, who have been the guests of Miss Mary Johnson in Prince street, left on Thursday for Seminary Hill, where they will spend the summer with Dr. and Mrs. Slaughter. Mrs. Eliza Greenough and Miss

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henry Carte Beverly spent the past week-end with Mr. Beverly's father, Mr. Robert Bever-

Miss Margaret Hoge, who has beer visiting Miss Jean Brent, has returned to her home in Washington. Miss Elizabeth Low, of North Carolina, is visiting her brother and sister in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Moxley D. Low.

Judge and Mrs. Louis C. Barby spen

Miss Christina Waggaman, of Washington, who has been visiting Miss Core ington, who has been visit Jones, has returned home.

Miss Mary Henry Daingerfield has re-turned to her home on Seminary Hill after visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Sterling, in New York City.

Miss Alice Roberts, of Washington, is visiting Miss Mary W. Snowden in King

Miss Elizabeth Brown spent the past week-end with her family in Covington,

Mr. Jack Worthington, of Washington, is visiting his aunts, the Misses Worthington, at "Cranford," on Seminary Hill.
Mrs. Charles Creighton Carlin and her little son, Master charles C. Carlin, Jr., left on Thursday to visit his sister, Mrs.
James L. Elliott, in Chicago.

Miss Dorsey Ashton has returned from a visit to Mrs. Berryman Green on Sem-inary Hill.

Miss Mabel Bearsley, of Richm the guest of Mrs. William S. Gr. North Washington street. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Carpenter their son and daughter, of Attleboro Mabs., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Payne in Rosemont.

Mrs. Walter S. Nichlin and her little daughter Sarah have returned from a visit to relatives in Strasburg.

Miss Cane Hiso Suite Flavett, Miss Carene Snowden and Miss Mary Snowden had a social meeting of the Kit Kats on Tuesday afternoon. Those present were: Miss Georgie French, Miss Dorsey Ashton, Miss Ellianbeth Brown, Miss Lisan Brent, Miss Nancy Tachett, Miss Lisan Brent, Miss Mancy Tachett, Miss Lisan Deane Anderson, Miss Mary Glenn Unler, Miss Susie Faucett, Mrs. Wilmer Waller, Miss Ellen Fawcett, Mrs. James H. Gibson, of Wellsburg, W. Va.; Miss Alice Roberts, of Washington, and Miss Louise Warren Payne, of Lynchburg.

Miss Lila Barrett and Miss Kitty Bar-rett are visiting their aunt, Miss Picket Walker, in Wide Water, Stafford County.

rett are visiting their aunt, Miss PicketWalker, in Wide Water, Stafford County.

Mrs. George Pryor Anderton was hostess at a card party on Tuesday afternoon at her home in Braddock Heights.
Six-hand euchre was played. Those present were: Mrs. L. Marshall Jones, Mrs. William J. Boothe, Mrs. Gardner
Lloyd Boothe, Mrs. Hugh McGuire, Mrs.
William B. Smoot, Mrs. George French,
Mrs. L. W. Robinson, Mrs. Hubert Snowden, Mrs. Arthur Snowden, Mrs. Robert
S. Barrett, Miss Neille Wattles, Miss
Phil Wattles, Mrs. C. William Wattles, Mrs. George Uhler, Mrs. C. J. Belton, of Boston: Mrs. Louis Greene, Miss Rosa McDonald, Mrs. William B. Daingerfield, Miss Mae Greene, Mrs. Samuel Monroe, Mrs. Charles Creighton Carlin, Mrs. Louis C. Barley, Mrs. David J.
Howell, Mrs. F. S. Danenhower, and Mrs. Clarence C. Leadbeater. The first prize was won by Miss Phill Wattles, the consolation by Mrs. L. Marshall Jones, and the booby by Mrs. Monroe. The score was kept by Miss Esther Burke, Miss Cora Jones, and Miss Alice Anderton.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett gave a re-

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett gave a reception on Thursday afternoon to meet Mrs. S. F. Sillson, of Los Angeles, Cal., who is the State regent of the D. A. R. for that State. Those asked to man Mrs. Sillson were Mrs. Caleston

Mrs. Samuel J. Monroe, Mrs. George Chier, Mrs. T. W. Robinson, and Mrs. William B. Daingerfield.

The last event of the season was the german given on Friday evening at the Elks' Hall by the girls to the members of the Alexandria German Club. The committee in charge was composed of Miss Neille Unier and Miss Cora Jones. The chaperons were Mrs. John M. Johnson. Mrs. Edward Kemper, Mrs. George Pryor Anderton, Mrs. George Unier, Mrs. Haney, of Montgomery, Ala.; Mrs. E. Fawcett, Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, and Mrs. Arthur Snowden. The german figures were led by Mr. Julian Burke with Miss Neille Unier and Mr. Conrad Johnson with Miss Cora Jones. Those dancing were Miss Beall Daingerfield. Miss Alice Anderton, Miss Nettle Herbert, Miss Alice Roberts, of Washington; Miss Mary Glenn Unier, Miss Mary W. Snowden, Miss Alice Chinn, Miss Josephine Roberts, Mrs. Ernest Miller, of Montgomery, Ala.; Miss Anne Lewis Jones, Miss Louise Warren Payne, of Lynchburg, Miss Mary Philips, Miss Jean Brent, Miss Katherine Steele Barrett, Miss Georgie French, Miss Louise Brandon, of Fairfax; Mrs. Anderson Sommers, Mrs. Charles C. Smoot, Miss Christina Waggaman, of Washington; Mrs. Thomas Martin Shepherd, and Mr. Philip Dawson, Mr. John Lawrence Marve, Mr. Marion Baker, Mr. Edward Fawcett, Mr. William Gaines, Mr. Jack Ashton, Mr. Plage Waller, Mr. Henry O'B, Cooper, Mr. Griffith Unier, Mr. Archibald King, Dr. Vivian Berry, Mr. Archibald King, Dr. Vivian Berry, Mr. Mackon Brown, Mr. John Lawrence Marve, Mr. Marion Baker, Mr. Edward Fawcett, Mr. William Galines, Mr. Jack Ashton, Mr. Poster, Mr. Beaudric Howell, Mr. Joe Addison, Mr. John Roberts, Mr. Arthur Herbert, Mr. Karl Minnigerode, of Washington; Mr. Foster, Mr. Beaudric Howell, Mr. Joe Addison, Mr. James Roberts, Mr. Mackell, and Mr. Milton French.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Perry celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their mar-riage at their home at Potomac several days ago. They entertained fifty friends at supper, following which an enjoyable evening was spent.

After spending the winter in Washing-ton, Mrs. Eleanor Clopper has returned to her home in Rockville A number of the young people of Rock-ville presente I two one-act comedies, en-titled "After the Matines" and "The Man Next Door," in the opera house Thura-day evening. The entertainment was day evening. The entertainment was given for the benefit of the Rockville Tennis Club. Those who took part wers Misses Maude Dugent, Laura Higgins, Bessie Brewer, and Priscilla Dawson, and Messrs. Stephen Quigley, William P. Prettyman, Alexander Prescott, jr., and Harry Rock.

Among the couples recently married in Rockville were Miss Angelana Presuttl, of Tuxedo, Md., and Mr. Costandino Bon-tobello, of Washington, and Miss Jessie Murray Davidson, of Arlington, Va., Mr. John Edwin Lautenschiager, Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Nicholson, jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Allan V. Walker are among the Washingtonians who will spend the summer in Rockville. Mrs. Mary A. Dawson and children are in Reading. Ps., where they were called several days ago by the death of Mrs. Dawson's father, Mr. Henry A. Hoff.

LAUREL.

Miss Sara Floyd, of Washington, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Scott, in Montgomery street. Miss Margaret Goldsborough has re-urned from a visit in Baltimore.

Miss Patty Hopkins, of Howard County, was the guest of friends in Laurel last

Mr. James Stanley, of Baltimore, was the guest of his brother, Mr. Charles H. Stanley, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stanley and Miss Margaret Stanley are at Atlantic City. Miss Geneva Curley has returned from a visit to Baltimore. Miss Millington, Miss Warnich, Mrs. Scott, and Mr. Bailey, of Pennsylvania, were the guests of Mrs. Millbrooke.

Mr. Frank Gwynne and family have moved into the house in Prince George street recently occupied by Maj. Little and family.

and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Bradley have returned from an extended trip South and are at home at the Mount Royal. Baltimore. Mr. Bradley was a visitor to Laurel during the week.

Pairfax County.

Mr. William Brooks, Mr. Wallace Lindsey, and Mr. Robert Standing have returned from a visit to Danville.

Mrs. Dempsey gave a card party to her nice, Miss Louise Warren Payne, on Pettit, recently, D. A. R. for that State. Those asked to meet Mrs. Stilson were: Mrs. Cassius F. Lee, Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, Mrs. Hubset Snowden, Mrs. Marshall Monald, Miss Bosa McDonald, Mrs. C. J. Helton, of Hoston, Mrs. Lorenzo Lewis, Mrs. Samuel J. Monroe, Mrs. George Unier, Mrs. T. W. Robinson, and Mrs. William B. Daingerfield.

ROCKVILLE.

Mrs. Edward Anderson has returned to Rockville after spending several months in Washington

Mrs Willis L. Moore entertained the Rockville Card Club Tuesday afternoon at her home near Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. David Humbird, of St. Paul, Minn., have been visiting in Rock-